CRIMINAL HISTORY CHECK

It is a prerequisite, in conjunction with the Rural Servicing programme placement process, that you undergo a criminal history check as part of the PGG Wrightson vetting process. Should you be successful you will be required to complete a Ministry of Justice Criminal Records check form which will be sent to you with your acceptance letter.

Should the check reveal any information that is unsatisfactory to the company any offer of placement may be revoked or your placement terminated immediately if you have commenced on the programme. PGG Wrightson retains the right to terminate your placement based on any unsavoury information that may be brought to our attention as a result of your criminal check and retains the right to reasonably determine the definition of unsavoury on a case by case basis.

It is expected checks may take approx. 3 weeks. Should you be offered placement and/or commence placement with PGG Wrightson the continuance of your placement is subject to the results of the criminal history check.

STUDENT DECLARATION

I declare that to the best of my knowledge the information supplied on this application is true and complete.

I acknowledge that I currently have no work related injury or ACC claim that would preclude me from carrying out the training and tasks I would be required to perform as a trainee on this programme.

I acknowledge that the personal information supplied in this form is obtained for the purposes of protecting my health and safety while attending this training programme.

I declare to the best of my knowledge the answers to the questions in this health assessment are correct and I understand that if any false information is given or material fact suppressed, my inclusion in some parts of this programme may be at risk.

I understand that if a criminal history check identifies any concerns to Agriculture New Zealand that my place (or an offer of a place) on the programme may be revoked.
