

---

Appointment of PGG Wrightson General Manager Livestock

PGG Wrightson is pleased to announce the appointment of Peter Moore to the role of General Manager, Livestock.

Peter has had a long career in farming followed by a series of senior management roles in the New Zealand agriculture industry. In his current role he has led the development and operation of Fonterra's farming businesses globally with a large focus on China and Brazil. In past roles, Peter has run AgResearch's farms in New Zealand, and has been responsible for overseeing Fonterra's international milk quality and risk management areas.

PGG Wrightson's Chief Executive, Mark Dewdney said that he was very pleased to be welcoming Peter to the company. He has led and managed large teams, and has direct experience in many areas that are highly relevant to PGG Wrightson's Livestock business.

Peter will report to Mark Dewdney and will join PGG Wrightson on 11 August 2014.

For further information:

Mark Dewdney
Tel: +64 27 248 3151