Commentary,

A smaller offering of around 7000 bales has again turned a positive result in Napier this morning. All wool types were up in value, although not at the leaps and bounds of the previous two sales. The 300 cents clean mark was broken today by some very good fleece wools, and good interest was shown for the finer second shear lambs wool that is starting to appear on the market.

Kind regards,
Steve Fussell
 NI Auctioneer.
