

NZX Release
26 May 2009

PGG Wrightson (PGW) Appoints Jason Dale as Chief Financial Officer

PGG Wrightson announced today the appointment of Jason Dale as its new Chief Financial Officer.

Jason is currently Chief Financial Officer at Auckland International Airport and has significant experience in senior executive financial positions, including with Fonterra and KPMG. Jason also has extremely relevant governance expertise in New Zealand, Australia and South America.

"Jason is an outstanding executive. He brings understanding of agribusiness, breadth and capability to PGW and we are very pleased we have been able to secure his services," said Tim Miles, Managing Director of PGW.

"Jason has maintained an ongoing involvement and interest in agribusiness and is currently a Director of Livestock Improvement Corporation [L.I.C.]," said Mr Miles.

Jason will commence with PGW no later than the end of August 2009.

For further information:

James Willoughby
Corporate Communications Manager
PGG Wrightson Limited
027 222 6703