

Appointment of PGG Wrightson Chief Financial Officer

PGG Wrightson is pleased to announce the appointment of Peter Scott to the role of Chief Financial Officer (CFO).

Peter originally hails from the Hawkes Bay and has had broad business experience, nationally and internationally, in businesses such as Fletcher Challenge, Norske Skog and Gloucester Coal. Peter has extensive CFO experience in listed companies and has led several large programmes focused on growth, acquisitions and group productivity improvement initiatives.

Peter is looking forward to joining PGG Wrightson and to returning to New Zealand and will be based in Christchurch.

PGG Wrightson's Chief Executive, Mark Dewdney said that he was "very pleased to be welcoming Peter to the company. He has good experience in many areas that are highly relevant to PGG Wrightson's business and areas where we are wanting to have increased focus."

Peter will report to Mark Dewdney and will join PGG Wrightson on 13 April 2015.
