Commentary,

The market in Napier this morning has seen a rise in price for most wool types. Of note today was good styled Lambs wool which was keenly sought after and a small offering of better coloured fleece wool that has reached very good levels in comparison to where we have been.

Next Thursday is the last of the weekly sales this wool season and we will fall back into the fortnightly cycle as wool volumes start to slow.

Kind regards,
Steve Fussell
 NI Auctioneer.

The next North Island sale is: 24/02/2022
