Commentary,

The PGG Wrightson catalogue was well placed to take advantage of the increasing prices as the sale got stronger during the morning. Whilst the better styled wools lifted slightly in price, it was the poorer types that showed the most positive outcome increasing in some cases by 30-40 cents greasy, a stark difference from two months ago. A full room of buyers tried hard to get their share with some walking away not being able to secure enough wool for their books this week.

Kind regards,
