Today's sale experienced a positive lift, largely influenced by the cancellation of the previous sale and continued low wool volumes. Buyer demand remained strong, with poor lambs continuing to exceed expectations in price.

The early offering of good-colour winter shears attracted strong competition, achieving some of the best prices we have seen in recent weeks. We were also pleased to welcome the Minister of Agriculture, Hon. Mark Patterson, whose presence underscored the importance of the sector. The energy and engagement in the auction served as a perfect showcase of the open-cry system at its best. The spirited bidding from the buyers really highlighted the strength and transparency of the open-cry auction system. Regards, Annabel Busby, Appraisal and Procurement Coordinator
