The last sale of the season finished on a firm note in sellers' favour for most Xbd styles. A limited offering of new season mid-micron with good preparation continues to find strong interest from buyers. A nominal offering of merino 2nd shear and oddments also received active interest from the floor. The first sale of the new season starts on the 17th July with buyers anticipating superior pre-lamb quality wools to come from what has been a favourable growing conditions from most regions. Dave Burrige, South Island Auction Manager
