“ The first national sale saw prices strengthen further across all wool types and styles on offer. Late season ewe wool and lamb's wool dominated the types on offer nationally.

Buyers were under pressure to secure volumes to match their orders from the 9500 bales on offer.

A nominal offering of half-bred lambs wool fetched considerable interest, reflective of the significant price gains witnessed across the Tasman in the last two weeks.

Buyers expressed their ongoing support of the consolidation of wool into the national auction centre.
